SPORTS TECHNOLOGY EXPO 2012

- part of the AMSTERDAM 2012 EVENT www.amsterdam2012event.com

December 12-13, 2012 AMSTERDAM, RAI Convention Centre

TECHNOLOGY IN SPORT – ALL EYES ON AMSTERDAM

Whilst football plays catch up, it is clear other sports have embraced technology and its positive application to professional sport.

Steve Griffiths (International Rugby Board), Jamie Capel-Davies (International Tennis Federation) and Dr Steve Otto (Royal & Ancient) will be making presentations on how technology has helped their respective sports.

IRB, ITF and Royal and Ancient will be making presentations at the SPORTS TECHNOLOGY EXPO 2012 that will take place at the RAI Convention Centre, Amsterdam. December 12-13, 2012.

The SPORTS TECHNOLOGY EXPO 2012 will take place on December 12-13, 2012 at the RAI Convention Centre, Amsterdam, Netherlands.

We look forward to seeing you there. For more information please see:
